

Our New Rummage Director Could Be You!

We are beginning our search for a parishioner to become our new Christ Church Rummage Director. The Director job is a part-time church staff position which offers tremendous flexibility and the opportunity to be an integral part of our largest and longest running outreach ministry. The position is supported by the 10 member Rummage Steering Committee, an experienced group of volunteers who are involved in all major aspects of our two annual sales.

Highlights of the Rummage Director job include:

- Plan, coordinate, and oversee all rummage activities before, during, and after our two sales (small summer sale is the first Saturday in June and the large fall sale is the first Thursday in October).

- Assist the Rummage Steering Committee (RSC) in recruiting new volunteers and department chairmen as needed.

- Hire and direct seasonal paid rummage workers.

- Help manage storage of all sorted merchandise and furniture.

- Work with RSC to reduce expenses and manage rummage income responsibly.

- Regularly participate in donation sorting.

- Have fun being a major part of this incredible ministry!

INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE?

Please contact any Steering Committee member for a further conversation! Members include Carol Rasmus, Suzie Peregrine, Elizabeth Parkinson, Darlene McKinney, Charlotte McGee, Erika Kreisa, Jen Baker, Susan Garland, Julie Flood, Robin Anstaett, and Rev. Nadia Stefko.
