St. Andrew's Book Club is back!

Although we don't gather in the summer, we have been actively keeping up with our reading.

This September, we'll be discussing two books: James by Percival Everett (winner of the 2025 Pulitzer Prize) & The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain. James reimagines the Huck Finn story, but the main character is now Huck's companion, the slave Jim (James). He is an intelligent and literate man who must hide his knowledge to exist in a slave-holding society. The book is both humorous and very serious. We invite everyone to join our discussion on Tuesday, September 16 at 7:00PM on Zoom.

Please join us for back to church celebration brunch immediately following worship, hosted by Donna & Frank Meystrik
