

In our live interactive webinars and lectures, popular glass artists and teachers share their techniques, tips, and secrets through commentary and slide shows. Participants can engage with the artist and others in the class via chat. Ask your questions, share your thoughts, and experience the fun and synergy of learning with a group who share your excitement and enthusiasm for glass art! No traveling required -- we bring the teacher and the fun to you.

E-mails relating to the Webinar will be sent to the e-mail address provided at registration.

Registrants will receive a reminder e-mail the day before the webinar.

On the day of the Webinar, registrants receive an e-mail with a link that will allow access to the workshop 15 minutes before showtime. Participants sign in to the Webinar using their name. No password is required.

For the best possible webinar experience, we suggest using a desktop or laptop computer with a fast, stable internet connection. If you have trouble connecting, try using a different internet browser.

Everyone who purchases a Webinar or Lecture will receive an e-mail with a link to a recorded version of the class that will be available for unlimited viewing with no expiration date. Watch as many times as you like for as long as you like! Participation in the live event is not required to receive the recording. Recorded Link e-mails will be sent within a week of the live class.

Those who purchase the Webinar must agree to respect the artist's talent and materials and NOT share links, passwords, and Webinar materials with anyone other than immediate family living in the same household. This applies to the Live Event link, Recorded link and password, and all information pertaining to the Webinar.
