

Your colleague in orthopedic hand surgery

Dr. Kevin Taylor is a fellowship-trained orthopedic surgeon specializing in hand and upper extremity surgery. His clinical areas of interest include complex wrist and elbow trauma, peripheral nerve injuries, and pediatric hand conditions.

Dr. Taylor is available to see adult and pediatric patients at ECU Health Orthopedics locations in Greenville and Kinston.

Available to see your patients for:

- Upper extremity fracture care
- Arthritis of the hand, wrist and elbow
- Carpal/cubital tunnel syndrome
- Elbow trauma
- Nerve injuries
- Tendon injury or inflammation
- Congenital hand differences

Education and training:

- Fellowship: Hand Surgery, HealthPartners Institute / University of Minnesota
- Residency: Orthopedic Surgery, Henry Ford Hospital

Scan to hear Dr. Taylor discuss his approach to patient care, clinical interests and more.

Commonly performed procedures:

- Fracture fixation
- Nerve decompression for carpal and cubital tunnel
- Trigger finger release
- Reconstructive surgeries, including joint replacement
- Nerve and tendon repair

To refer a patient:

Submit a request through EHR:
Use CareLink or send to
Referral@DirectVidantHealth.com

Submit a request by fax:
Send patient notes to 252-84-REFER (252-847-3337)

Check the status of a referral:
Login to CareLink or call 252-847-0097 to speak with a referral specialist

Internal and CareLink referrals:
VPG-ORTHOPEDICS - GREENVILLE
VPG-ORTHOPEDICS - KINSTON