

Making gastroenterology care more accessible

ECU Health is pleased to announce the addition or expansion of gastroenterology services to two eastern North Carolina communities – Roanoke Rapids and Washington.

Roanoke Rapids

ECU Health Gastroenterology - Roanoke Rapids opened on Feb. 2 following the acquisition of Halifax Gastroenterology, and the on-site ECU Health Endoscopy Center - Roanoke Rapids is now accepting patients as well. Dr. Nagarjuna Yerra, who has long provided gastroenterology care in the community, will continue practicing at the clinic.

To refer a patient:

- Send a request to COMM-GASTROENTEROLOGY - ROANOKE RAPIDS in Epic or CareLink
- Fax a request with patient notes to 252-535-8952

Washington

Last month, Carrie Tingley, AGNP, joined Dr. Glenn Harvin in the clinic at ECU Health Gastroenterology - Washington. Additionally, Dr. Kara Regan and Dr. Karissa Lambert are rotating to ECU Health Beaufort Hospital on Fridays to perform GI procedures, further increasing access to specialized care in the region.

To refer a patient:
