

"FALL FOR NEW ENGLAND" TOUR

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2018

Journey by luxury motor coach to the Nashoba Valley of MA, Johnny Appleseed country. Stop at the Harvard General Store in Harvard MA that overlooks the town green for a buffet breakfast. Surrounded by historic homes it is as picturesque and quintessentially New England as it gets .

Then we visit nearby Fruitlands Museum in Harvard MA set on 200 acres of panoramic views all the way to Mt Wachusett. The perfect vantage point to enjoy mother nature's Fall magic. A unique collection of five museums and exhibits featuring New England History, Culture and Art. There will be time to explore the current exhibits featuring more than 50 paintings from Hudson River School painters.

Departing Fruitlands Museum, we will take a rolling tour of this historic area stopping at Westward Orchards nestled in the hills of Nashoba Valley. This farm has been growing quality fruits & vegetables for 4 generations. Be sure to try their cider donuts, they're 'addictive'. If you like, take a hayride through the orchard.

Then its on to lunch at The 1761 Old Mill in Westminster MA located in a former saw mill creating a visual wonderland of traditional New England charm. Overlooking a mill pond and waterfall and accessed by a covered bridge over a roaring brook. The perfect setting for true New England dining.

After lunch we will head to nearby Mt Wachusett, By special permission we will ascend to the summit in the comfort of our motorcoach, the highest peak east of the Connecticut River and enjoy a spectacular 360 degree view. It's no wonder people Fall for New England. (Elevation: 2,006 ft)
