

COLONIAL CARRIAGE & DRIVING SOCIETY

Spring Clinic: Introduction to Driving...and more

SATURDAY, APRIL 15 | 9:00 AM

RAIN OR SHINE

At Orleton Farm in our new event barn
31 Prospect Hill Road
Stockbridge, MA

Our panel of experts this year:

Barbara Akers Sarah Bates Bruce Jones Jeff Morse

We will have an open discussion format with our panel of experts covering a full range of topics from novice to advanced. We'll cover the new ADS rules, the lowdown on this year's combined test and driving trial, effective communication with your horse, appropriate harness/vehicle choices, and techniques for schooling your horse. Consider any behavioral or training challenges you have encountered with your horse. Chances are, these experts have seen that, dealt with that, and overcome it. So come prepared with a list of your questions and concerns.

RSVP: By April 9 maureengamelli2@gmail.com (413)822-1028

Seminar Fee: $60 CCDS member | $70 Non-member | Walk-ins welcome $75

Join CCDS: $25 per year/per family | colonialcarriage.org

Make check payable to: CCDS | Mail to: Maureen Gamelli, 410 East St, Lee, MA 01238

Agenda

9:00 am	Registration is at our new meeting place: the beautifully restored event barn	Coffee and donuts provided
9:30	Event barn	Morning session Part 1: Open discussion
11:00	Break
11:15	Event barn	Part 2: Jeff Morse presents an extensive slide show collection that will help visualize proper techniques
Noon – 1:00 pm	Lunch Event barn	Pizza and beverages provided
1:00 – 3:00	Arena (outdoors or indoors Depending on weather)	Afternoon session Part 3: Live demo by Sarah and the famous Bugatti portraying Dressage techniques and Judging criteria
3:00 +		Recap of the day Q&A with the presenters