A CRUISING CONFERENCE

WE DO MEAN TO GO TO SEA

11TH MARCH 2018

WE DO MEAN TO GO TO SEA

11th March 2018

Royal Hospital School - Ipswich IP9 2RX

The Cruising Association and the Woolverstone Project, which works to offer sailing for disabled people, have got together to organise a unique one-day event at the historic Royal Hospital School.

CRUISING ASSOCIATION

The conference will offer attendees a chance to explore a diverse range of cruising destinations, hear entertaining speakers and come away with new skills.

Book online at: www.cruisingconference.co.uk

Book early (by 31st December 2017) for early bird discounts

All profits go towards helping disabled people to go sailing with The Woolverstone Project

Sponsored by

FOX'S MARINA & BOATYARD
SINCE 1927

www.cruisingconference.co.uk

The Woolverstone Project
Sailing for People with Disabilities
At Woolverstone & Alton Water
Registered Charity 1046098

Supported by

ROYAL HARWICH YACHT CLUB

WE DO MEAN TO GO TO SEA

11th March 2018

Royal Hospital School - Ipswich IP9 2RX

Keynote lectures and a huge choice of workshops, including:

Communication afloat

Weather

Pilotage

Safety
liferafts, lifejackets, gas and firesafety, man overboard and safety equipment

Sail tuning and rig tuning for fast and efficient cruising

Splicing modern ropes

Marine photography

Cooking afloat

Cruising destinations
the Netherlands, the Mediterranean, Blue Water, Round Britain, Biscay and Atlantic France,
the Baltic and so on

Book online at: www.cruisingconference.co.uk

Book early (by 31st December 2017) for early bird discounts

All profits go towards helping disabled people to go sailing with The Woolverstone Project

Sponsored by
FOX'S MARINA & BOATYARD
SINCE 1927

Supported by
ROYAL HARWICH YACHT CLUB

The Woolverstone Project
Sailing for People with Disabilities
At Woolverstone & Alton Water
Registered Charity 1046098