Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

Reader A reading from Exodus (16:2-15)

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.” So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?” And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.”

Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.’” And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. The LORD spoke to Moses and said, “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

Confitemini Domino

Robert Knox Kennedy
(b. 1945)

1 Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.

2 Sing to him, sing praises to him, *
and speak of all his marvelous works.

3 Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

4 Search for the Lord and his strength; *
continually seek his face.

5 Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,

6 O offspring of Abraham his servant, *
O children of Jacob his chosen.

37 He led out his people with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.

38 Egypt was glad of their going, *
because they were afraid of them.

39 He spread out a cloud for a covering *
and a fire to give light in the night season.

40 They asked, and quails appeared, *
and he satisfied them with bread from heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and water flowed, *
so the river ran in the dry places.

42 For God remembered his holy word *
and Abraham his servant.

43 So he led forth his people with gladness, *
his chosen with shouts of joy.

44 He gave his people the lands of the nations, *
and they took the fruit of others' toil,

45 That they might keep his statutes *
and observe his laws.
Hallelujah!

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well— since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (20:1-16) People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Nicene Creed

p. 358

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

*We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;*

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you,
 O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory
 for ever and ever. Amen.*

In the Episcopal tradition, all are welcomed to the Table; simply come to the altar rail and kneel to receive if you are able, or you may stand. If you are unable to come to the rail, please indicate to an usher that you would like communion brought to you.

All baptized Christians may receive communion. You have these choices:

- You may hold out both hands to receive bread and drink from the cup;
 - Or you may pinch two fingers over one hand and the Celebrant will intinct (dip) the edge of the bread in the Common Cup for you, then drop the bread gently into your outstretched hands.
 - If you prefer to receive only bread, simply cross one arm across your chest as you hold out your hand for bread.
 - You may cross your arms over your chest and simply receive a blessing.

- Country Fair Car Show! Are you a gear head? Do you have a car or motorcycle that you think is worth showing off? At this year's Pohick Country Fair we will have our very own Car Show. It is open to any parishioner with a vehicle of interest: Sports cars, classic cars, muscle cars, hot rods and motorcycles. Please contact Paul Leon (PSVA.01@gmail.com) for information.
- The Golden Dove Gift Shop will be open in the Vestry House. Come see us on Fair day!
- Blessing of the Animals, Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Sunday afternoon, Oct 8 at 4 pm at the Dogwood Chapel, below parking lot.
- Families of Pohick - You are invited to join us for an evening of fellowship at Pohick on Friday, October 13th at 6pm (or whenever you can get everyone together and to the church). Childcare will be provided for families of little ones. Group activity/games provided for the teens. Bring your own dinner (it's a carry out/no cook night) and your beverage of choice and plan to spend some time enjoying fellowship with other parents of Pohick! It's a great place to meet other Pohick families and a place to reconnect with families you see in passing on Sunday. Questions? Call or email Jen Crump-Strawderman at 703-469-6740/h8meats@gmail.com or Aaron Ross at 978-626-6393/aross@vts.edu
- George Mason's Gunston Hall: Storytime Oct. 15 and 18, 10:30-11:15 am! Program for preschool-age children and their families, includes hands-on-activities and read-aloud story. Visit gunstonhall.org or call 703-550-9220 for tickets. Gunston Hall requires at least one adult to attend for every two children participating in the program. If you have any questions, please contact Rebecca Hall (rebecca.hall@gunstonhall.org) or Emily Elston (emily.elston@gunstonhall.org).
- The next Pohick Church history refresher session will be held on Saturday, October 28, 9:30 am to 2:30 pm in the Parish House Annex. Lunch will be provided. There will be a virtual link available. Please RSVP with a contact email for virtual or in person attendance to Fred Crawford at frcrawford205@comcast.net or 703-994-5236.

Funerals:

- Funeral for Col. William Wentworth at Arlington National Cemetery, Wednesday, Sept. 27.
- Committal of Former Pohickian Anne Cannon. You are all invited to attend the committal of Anne Cannon, Thursday, Oct. 12, at 11 am, at Quantico National Cemetery.

Capital Campaign:

- Christian Hospitality through Accessibility. Thank you for attending our kickoff Adult Forum about raising capital to build our new accessibility ramp and playground! Look for your brochure and capital campaign pledge cards and please return the pledge card by Dec. 15. You can specify payments over a period of time. Thank you!

Outreach:

Afghan Ministry Update: Thank you to those who have donated to the Husain family!

Next up: new school clothes or gift cards to allow them to shop for themselves (Target or Visa).

Boys' clothing sizes: 7th grader and 4th grader and 4-year-old- Pants: 14, 12, 6; T-shirts: 12, 10, 5

Girls' clothing sizes: 1st grader-Pants: 6; Dress: 6x-7

Teenage girls would probably like to shop for themselves (gift cards).

Toddlers/Babies – Boys: 2T, 3T and 12 -months

Most importantly, we need volunteers to help with learning English, maybe an hour or two a week, not even weekly if we have several volunteers to rotate. Also, we have been asked by NoVa RAFT to “be the parent” and communicate with the children’s teachers. Five children/teens attend school -2 at William Ramsay ES, 1 at Hammond Middle and 2 at Alexandria City HS. He would like have someone to check in with their teachers and see what is needed. The Alexandria schools are overwhelmed and it’s easy to fall through the cracks. Please contact me if you are willing to help in this capacity. I envision each child/teen has one of us to advocate for them. Thank you for all your continued support! Patty Mitchell- pdmitch1@gmail.com

Veterans' Assistance Fund

- Pohick Church has created a new fund to support the financial needs of veterans and their families. Ministries (such as the Brotherhood of St. Andrew’s or women’s guilds) are encouraged to contribute to this special fund, as well as individuals. Recipients will receive confidential financial aid at the discretion of the Rector. You may send donation checks payable to “Pohick Church” with “Veterans’ Assistance Fund” in the memo. Pohick Church is now a national church-designated “Friend of Veterans.”
