

Jaycees welcome new president

HIGH POINT — The High Point Jaycees recently welcomed Abigail Lind as its incoming president during its end-of-year meeting.

Lind replaces outgoing President Caroline Cooling, who will serve on the board in 2022 along with Byron Murrain, Bryan Dutton, Kristen Moore, John Shelton and Cameron Green Marsden.

Abigail Lind

Lind is the content manager at Stratagon, a local integrated marketing and technology agency. Her professional background includes teaching and sales with more than 10 years of experience in research, copywriting and editing. She also serves with several local organizations, including the Leadership High Point Steering Committee, the Young Professionals Committee with Business High Point-Chamber of Commerce and in roles with Visit High Point and Forward High Point.
