

HPU Dining wins fitness challenge

SPECIAL | HPE

HPU Dining recently won first place in a step challenge that was created by Harvest Table's leadership. In December, HPU Dining employees participated in the "Harvest Table on the Move" challenge, which encouraged them to move more during the month and log their steps weekly. HPU Dining employees earned first place with 5,558,941 steps. As the winner, Harvest Table donated $1,000 to the Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina on behalf of HPU. Pictured, from left, at the check presentation are HPU Dining members Kevin Summers, director of hospitality services; Gracie Sullivan, hospitality service manager for Subway; and Peter Mandala, general manager.
