

Rotary Club of High Point donates to food program

SPECIAL | HPE

The Rotary Club of High Point recently presented a $10,424 check to Lisa Hawley, owner of Southern Roots Restaurant and founder of Feeding Lisa's Kids, a non-profit that feeds 180-190 families with school-aged children each month. Eligible families receive $100 worth of groceries, which comes to about $18,000 per month in expenses. The Rotary Club of High Point will continue to support Feeding Lisa's Kids through volunteer services and delivering food to the families each month, said President Don Shaw.
