

Bison, Red Raiders set to play at Truist Point

BY ENTERPRISE STAFF

HIGH POINT — Truist Point will host the two upcoming baseball games between rivals High Point and Andrews.

The Red Raiders will be the home team for the contest on Wednesday, March 8, which starts at 6 p.m. The Bison will host the game on Monday, March 13, also at 6 p.m. Gates will open at 5:30 p.m. prior to each game.

The Bison and the Red Raiders have met over 100 times in baseball since Andrews opened in 1968.

"What an awesome experience it was for our kids to play at Truist Point last year," Central athletics director Mike Cook said. "The Rockers organization has been so gracious and we are forever grateful to the entire organization for the opportunity. This is a wonderful game and rivalry, now in its 55th year, and we are lucky to be able to play them again at Truist Point."

Tickets are priced at $7 and are available only at the gate on the day of the game.
