

ON THE SCENE

On the Scene is a column listing community events that runs each Wednesday and on other days on a space-available basis. Items will be edited to conform to Enterprise guidelines. Items must be submitted at least seven days before the event. The information must contain a street address for the event. Submissions may be mailed or delivered to the High Point Enterprise, 213 Woodbine St., High Point, NC 27260, or submitted by email to neighbors@hpenews.com.

BLACK BUSINESS EXPO

The High Point Public Library will host the Black Business Expo, an event featuring local vendors with a variety of products and services, on Saturday, March 11, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the library's first-floor lobby, 901 N. Main St. After the expo, attendees are invited to an author discussion with Vanessa Miller at 3 p.m. in the Morgan Community Room, where she will talk about her book, "What We Found in Hallelujah." Attendees are encouraged to enter a door-prize drawing. Both events are free and open to the public.

DANCE CONCERT

"Happenings," the spring dance concert produced by High Point University's Department of Theater and Dance, will be March 16-18 in the Hayworth Fine Arts Center at 7:30 p.m. The concert features new works choreographed by dance students. Free tickets available at: www.highpoint.edu/theater/tickets.

JOB FAIR

The High Point Market Authority and the High Point Rockers will host a seasonal jobs fair at Truist Point baseball stadium 3-6 p.m. Tuesday, March 21. For all interested applicants in the Triad. Jobs fair participants may apply for part-time, seasonal positions available in High Point for the April High Point Market and the 2023 Rockers baseball season, which runs from April to September. Applicants must be at least 18 and present a valid state ID. Prior experience in the fields of customer service, transportation, hospitality and food service is preferred, but not required. For information, call the market authority at 336-869-1000 or the Rockers at 336-888-1000.

BOXING CLUB

Local nonprofit group Commander Peace Academy will host an interest meeting for youth and young adults interested in joining a local boxing club on Saturday, March 25, at 3 p.m. at Another Chance Community Center, 1916 English Road, High Point. Membership for training is open to all residents 8 years and older. No boxing experience is required. The boxing club also will serve as a fitness gym with different classes offered, including for ladies and seniors. Participants can register for classes at the interest meeting on March 25 or call/text 336-403-1193 to schedule an appointment to register. The application fee is $25. Classes range from $25 to $45 per month, which includes access to workout times during the week. For information call 336-991-3524.

COBLE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

The High Point Community Foundation is accepting applications for the J. Howard Coble Scholarship fund for the 2022-23 school year. Open to high school seniors living in Guilford, Davidson and Randolph counties, as well as other counties in Coble's former congressional district. Priority will be given to children of U.S. military personnel or U.S. military veterans, members of scouting programs and members of ROTC programs. Scholarship amount is $2,500 and the application deadline is March 31. Apply at <https://bit.ly/3IXUf2Q>. For information email Amanda Bennett at: amanda@hpccommunityfoundation.org

SENIOR GAMES

Registration is open for the High Point Senior Games. For ages 50 and up. More than 60 categories of athletic and other competitions, including visual and performing arts, literary and heritage. Registration open through March 31. $12 per person. Call 336-883-3584

FREE CONCERT

The HPU Jazz Ensemble will perform April 4 in the Empty Space Theater at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are free and can be reserved at www.highpoint.edu/music/concerts.

COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA

The High Point University Community Orchestra will present "A Night at the Movies" on April 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hayworth Fine Arts Center. Reserve free tickets at www.highpoint.edu/music/concerts.

FREE PLAY AT HPU

HPU's Department of Theater and Dance performs "Silent Sky," a play by Lauren Gunderson and directed by Doug Brown, chair and associate professor of theater and performance, April 20-22 at 7:30 p.m., and April 23 at 2 p.m. in the Hayworth Fine Arts Center. The play follows the true story of the 19th century astronomer Henrietta Leavitt. Tickets are free and open to the public at www.highpoint.edu/theater/tickets.

CHORAL CONCERT

Mozart's "Requiem" will be performed by all the High Point University choirs with accompaniment from the HPU Community Orchestra and featuring soloists on April 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hayworth Fine Arts Center. Tickets are free and can be reserved at www.highpoint.edu/music/concerts.

WIND ENSEMBLE

The High Point University Wind Ensemble presents "Departures" on April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hayworth Fine Arts Center. Reserve free tickets at www.highpoint.edu/music/concerts.

SEE SCENE/PAGE A6

SCENE

FROM PAGE A2

FARMERS MARKET DOUBLE THE BUCKS

Each Saturday from April 22 through Oct. 28, the High Point Farmers Market will offer a Double the Bucks program for SNAP customers. Each dollar charged to a customer's EBT card will be matched dollar-for-dollar. The market sells fresh produce, baked goods, vegetable and herb plants and other locally produced food items. The market is operated by and located at the High Point Public Library, 901 N. Main St. The hours are 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. each Saturday. The Double the Bucks program is made possible by a $5,000 grant from Bethany Medical and the Lenny Peters Foundation.

CARE, DARE SUMMER CAMPS

The Randolph County Sheriff's Office again will host CARE and DARE summer camps for Randolph County students in private and homeschools. CARE, or Child Abuse Reduction Effort, is open to homeschoolers and private school children in grades 2-4. DARE, or Drug Abuse Resistance Education, is open to those students in grades 5-7. The camps are four hours a day during the week of July 31 - Aug. 4. They will take place at the Randolph County Emergency Services Headquarters located at 760 New Century Drive, Asheboro (across the parking lot from the Randolph County Sheriff's Office). Application deadline is June 23. Applications for both programs can be found online at <https://bit.ly/3IEliyu/>. Each child will graduate with a certificate of completion and a T-shirt.

WOMEN ARE MADE

Women are Made, a free program, features speakers and discussions on a variety of issues over brunch on Saturdays, 1-3 p.m., at Morehead Recreation Center, 101 Price St., High Point. Call 336-883-3506 to register.

THOMASVILLE WOMAN'S CLUB

Thomasville Woman's Club is hosting community and organization meetings, as well as weddings, receptions, reunions and more in its historic building at 15 Elliott Drive, Thomasville. The club also offers Sunday buffet lunches 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Call 336-472-7336 for information on hosting events or to make lunch reservations.