Gary Sellers Recognized By AMA

The Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF) proudly congratulates Gary Sellers on his induction into the AMA Hall of Fame. The American Motorcyclist Association (AMA) Hall of Fame honor recognizes Gary's lifetime of dedication to motorcycling and the rights of America's riders.

For decades, Gary Sellers has been a tireless freedom fighter for motorcyclists in Ohio and across the nation. Since the 1970s, he has stood at the forefront of the motorcyclists' rights movement, helping build the foundation for the freedoms riders enjoy today. As a founding member of ABATE of Ohio and its legislative agent for ten years, Gary has spent a lifetime fighting to protect the rights, lifestyle, and liberties of all motorcyclists.

Gary's leadership and commitment to the cause have inspired generations of advocates and riders. Through legislative battles, grassroots organizing, and decades of unwavering service, he has remained a steady and respected voice for freedom on two wheels.

This latest recognition adds to a long list of well-earned honors, including his place in the Motorcycle Riders Foundation Hall of Fame and the Sturgis Motorcycle Museum & Hall of Fame, Freedom Fighters Hall of Fame. For those who know Gary, the recognition is no surprise. His humility, dedication, and relentless work ethic have made him one of the most respected figures in the motorcyclists' rights movement.

Gary Sellers has spent a lifetime fighting for all of us. The MRF is proud to celebrate this moment and thank him for his decades of leadership, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to freedom.
