

Meeting Of The Minds 2026

Five Weeks From Today

Five weeks from today, Meeting of the Minds 2026 will be underway.

The workshops will be in session. The discussions will be taking place.

New ideas will be exchanged. New relationships will be formed.

And motorcyclists' rights advocates from across the nation will be working together to strengthen the future of our movement.

The question is: Will you be there?

Every year, attendees arrive expecting to learn something new.

They leave with much more.

- New contacts.
- New ideas.
- New strategies.
- New motivation.
- New opportunities to make a difference.

Some of the most important conversations at Meeting of the Minds never happen from a podium.

They happen in hallways. Over breakfast. Between workshops.

Late in the evening, when riders from different states compare challenges, successes, and solutions.

One conversation can spark a new membership program. One idea can strengthen an organization. One connection can help solve a problem that seemed impossible just days before.

That's why riders return year after year. Not because they have all the answers. Because they know they can find them together.

Five weeks may sound like a long time. It isn't.

The agenda is coming together. Attendees are making plans. Hotel rooms are being booked.

The work is about to begin. September 24-27, 2026, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
Be part of it.
