Beach University presents “The Sand and Shells Found on Siesta Key”

Siesta Beach, 948 Beach Road, Sarasota

SARASOTA COUNTY — The upcoming Beach University class will be “The Sand and Shells Found on Siesta Key” presented by John Colagrande with the Sarasota Shell Club. John will be discussing the many colors and textures of sand you can find at our area beaches. Find out more about the crystal white quartz sand found on Siesta Beach and discuss and share the many different shells found on the beaches from the Sarasota Shell Club’s collection.

The next Beach University class will be Saturday, Oct. 6 from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at Siesta Beach. The class is free and will be held at the main pavilion.

No registration is required. Limited seating is available. Bringing your own chair is acceptable.

Due to red tide, some events may be canceled or rescheduled. Please call the Sarasota County Contact Center at 941-861-5000 and ask about Beach University for the most up to date information.
