

Lyskava Memorial Trust

Paul Lyskava passed away on June 26, 2017. Paul served the forest products industry with unparalleled dedication and had a personal conviction and commitment for every aspect of the forest products industry. Though he was much more astute to legislation than forest harvest management plans, and much more polished on industry issues as opposed to silvicultural academics, his efforts over the span of his career had an equal value in impact on protecting and conserving the forest, as well as aiding everyone involved in the forest products industry on any level.

To recognize and memorialize Paul's contribution to the industry and show our gratitude to his family, it is our intention to establish the Lyskava Memorial Trust Fund to benefit Paul's son, Sean Lyskava, who has autism. Paul loved his wife Kathleen and his son Sean more than anything in the world. It is fitting that we honor him by providing a measure of support for them.

Donations can be made out to "PA Forest Products Association". Please note "Lyskava Memorial Trust" on the check. Mail to:
