Good Morning Wonderful Parents!

Our newsletter for the week is attached to this e-mail.

The kids had SO much fun celebrating their 100th day of first grade yesterday! They participated in lots of STEM centers, in which they were given 100 items and asked to create something amazing. It was truly awesome seeing their creativity at work! With that being said, we only have 80 days left together.):

This week, I will be recording your child giving his or her store position speech. On Friday, second grade will be watching our speeches and voting on who should be our classroom representatives for each position. The kids are SO excited and of course I cannot wait to share them with you! (:

Words of the Week:

Chip
Shop
When Whip
Graph
Chop
Ship
Wish
Fish
Rich

We have had quite a few students come down with illnesses within the past week in our class. With that being said, please make sure that if your child has thrown up or had a fever, they cannot return to school until they have been symptom free for 24 hours.

Report Cards were sent home in your child's green folder on Wednesday, January 30th. Please make sure that you look over the document, sign, and RETURN it in your child's green folder by this Wednesday, February 6th. Your child's grades for the year are recorded on the same document, therefore I need to have them back in order to record grades for the next quarter.

Please make sure that your child is coming to school with his or her green folder and book baggie EVERY day, as I check them. (:

We will be taking our middle of the year Reading MAPS test this Tuesday, February 5th. Please try to make sure that your child arrives to school on time, as we will begin the test at 8:15 AM.

I will be sending home our class list on Monday, February 4th, in your child's green folder. We will have a valentine exchange after snack on Thursday, February 14th! (:

As always, if you ever have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Enjoy this beautiful weekend! (:
