Peek at the Week!

Our Week at a Glance

Reading/Writing Workshop: Our poem of the week will be a "Little Night Owl." We will work on -ight words family. In phonics, we will work on words with long and short vowels. We will also review contractions. The students will be doing informational non-fiction writing. We will read several National Geographic books about animals that they can write about.

Math: We will work on place value and counting tens and ones. We will review time to the hour and half hour. Check your child's folder for which number group to study for the addition fluency test on Friday.

PBL: Driving question: How can we as first graders make an impact on the world today?

They will be preparing the items to sell in their store this week. Thank you for the items that you were able to bring in to make this possible! Our presentation will be on Thursday, February 28th at 1pm in the multi-purpose room.

Read Each Night!

Books will begin being sent home this week inside your child's folder. This is the book that is on your child's reading level and is the book used during our guided reading time. Please return it each day! Please take care of this book!!!

Homework:

Please read each night and practice the Most common words and words of the week. Practice recognition as well as writing each word. Practice the words that were sent home in the baggie for your child, return the words once they can read them.

Little Night Owl

Once there was a night owl
who lived up in a tree.

He could often spot things that others couldn't see.

Little night owl, answer me.

What do you see, as you sit alone at night in the trees?
