Good Afternoon Wonderful Parents!

I am attaching our newsletter for the week to this e-mail. The kids accomplished a lot last week! We talked about nonfiction texts and the kids had an opportunity to create their own nonfiction magazine on their historical figure of choice. They look AWESOME and the kids cannot wait to share them with you at our next POL (February 28th)! This week, we are going to talk about the roles in a store and compare them to roles in our government. Each child is going to have an opportunity to "run" for a position in our "store." They will be creating their own campaign posters and speeches.

Please note that your child's report card will be sent home in your child's green folder this Wednesday, January 30th. Please know that if your child is "Approaching" in any area, we are still working on the skill, therefore there is no need to panic. I am asking that you review, sign, and return the document, as your child's grades are recorded on the document for the entire year.

I cannot believe we are already halfway through the year! This year is flying by and I am excited to celebrate with the kids on Friday! (:

If you signed up to bring in items for our 100th/Valentine's Day celebrations, please make sure that they are sent in by this Wednesday, January 30th (<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080548a5a62fa1f94-100th>). Beginning this Friday, your child will also start decorating his/her Valentine's mailbox as well. We will be having a Valentine exchange on Thursday, February 14th. I will send out a class list next for you to have if your child would like to bring in Valentines.

Along with the celebration supplies, we are also currently in need of paper towels and spoons. If you are willing and able to donate anything, we would greatly appreciate it!

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me!

Enjoy this beautiful weekend! (:
