Dear Parents,

This week is Dr. Seuss week. The following activities are planned:

Monday: Wear a hat

Tuesday: Wear crazy socks

Wednesday: Wear mix match clothes

Thursday: Wear Green

Friday: Wear pajamas to school.

We will be doing activities in the class in honor of Dr. Seuss.

We did voting in our room for different positions for our class store. The students are learning so much about democracy and government. We will start working on crafts for our class store and we will open the the store for parents to come shop the middle of March. I will send a date home soon.

Please continue to have your child read to you aloud nightly and work on math facts. We will continue to work on 3's this week.

Our spelling words will be the days of the week because learners need to know how to spell them on the MAP test.

I graded some writing papers this weekend I am very impressed with. We have worked on opinion and narrative writings.

Thank you to all the parents who sent in expo pens. Most of ours are dried up. I hope you have a wonderful week and I am honored to teach your son or daughter. I have the best class ever.

Kindest Regards,

Mrs. Stacy Harker
