Hello families, I hope you are well! Below you will find the newsletter for the week.

A Note from Mrs. Christman.....

Don't forget we have our American Symbols and Values Presentation of Learning (POL) on March the 1st at 1pm. Our POL will be a living museum and each student will represent something different we learned. I'm so excited for the kids to pick their subjects tomorrow!

Next week is also Dr. Seuss week! Look below for the schedule of events. There will also be a sign up sent out tomorrow for help with making some fun things to celebrate!

This Week's Objectives:

Reading- We can use skills like rhyming and identifying who is telling a story with Dr. Seuss books.

Phonics- We can identify different letter combinations.

Writing- We can write an informative piece.

Math- We can review old skills (shapes, measuring, addition, subtraction, etc).

PBL- We can use our knowledge on American symbols, holidays, and people to create a project.

Calendar of Events:

2/26- The Cat in the Hat- Wear your favorite hat.

2/27- Fox in Sox- Wear crazy socks

2/28- Wacky Wednesday- wear crazy, wacky mix-matched clothing.

3/1 Green Eggs and Ham- Wear Green

3/1 American Symbols POL at 1 pm

3/2 Sleep Book- Wear your pajamas

How to Help at Home

I will be sending an updated sight word list home next week. Please continue to work on sight words with your children that aren't highlighted. Continue to read with your children every night for 20 minutes. Please include reading the book that is sent home Monday- Thursday. I have confidence soar since the kids have been bringing the books home! Y'all are awesome.

Shout Outs

- Shout out to Zoey Infinger for winning this month's PAWSitive award for responsibility. I can always count on Zoey to do her work and meet behavior expectations even when I'm not looking.
- Shout out to Gracie Barlow for winning last month's PAWSitive award for positivity. You can always find a smile on Gracie's face.
- Shout out to our new student Javien. We have loved having him the past few days.
