Happy Monday 4th grade families!

I hope you are all enjoying your day off and relaxing before we are back! I can't believe February is almost done. It is as if we blinked and its already gone! Each student has been working extremely hard over these past couple of weeks and I couldn't be more proud!

On Wednesday, please send your child in any 70's attire that you may have around the house! We will be creating our own 4th grade Soul Train for Black History Month.

Important Dates

Wednesday 2/20: 70's Day

Thursday 2/21: Ch. 7 Math Test

Branches of Government POL (closed event)

Black History Month Speaker

Friday 2/22: Spelling Quiz

Multiplication Fluency Quiz

4th Grade Happenings

Math: Ch.7 has come and went and now it is time for a test! Students will be reviewing on Tuesday and Wednesday and will be testing on Thursday. If you need any extra resources to help your student study, please feel free to message me! Students will be having multiplication fluency quiz on Friday, but they will not have a math project or choice this week due to the test.

Reading: To help us review the branches of government, students will be creating their own book on the branches of government this week. Each page will review each branch and conclude with how each branch checks the other branches. For spelling, students will be focusing on sight words this week for their spelling list. The words are as follows:

1. Surprise
2. Umbrella
3. Believe
4. Cousin
5. Medium
6. Already
7. Picnic
8. Twice
9. Point
10. Whole

Writing: To give students extra time with their PBL projects since we have had testing the past couple of weeks, students will be using their writing time to work on projects.

PBL: Students will continue working on their branches of government projects Tuesday and Wednesday. They will present their projects to the class on Thursday. This is a closed event, but our next POL will be an open event! Students will have their branches of government test on Tuesday February 26th.
