Good evening everyone,

Sorry for the late email. I will not have access to a computer until late Sunday, so I am sending you our newsletter now. We only have a few short weeks left- so crazy. I am sad but excited at the same time. I love these 15 kids so much. I can't wait for them to come back and eat lunch with me or read to my class.

Don't forget that our field trip is this comin Thursday. I sent out important information regarding it the other day. I will send reminders the day before!

As of right now, we raised about $75.00 for our animal! We still have donations trickling in from students who were absent. With that being said, we tallied your votes as well as other students and the winning animal was.....the Red Panda! We went ahead and purchased the $55.00 adoption kit and everything will arrive within 6-10 business days! Once we get all donations in next week, we will either adopt another animal and do the $25.00 adoption kit OR just donate the money. I will let you know what the class decides! I can't thank everyone enough for your support through this project and at our POL on Thursday. I know that noise was an issue, but I appreciate everyone's kind words. I can't tell you how much they loved doing this project and how much I loved it!

I hope everyone has a great weekend. My husband and I are going to visit family in Charleston as a "late" Spring Break trip! Enjoy the beautiful weather!
