Peek at the Week!

Our Week at a Glance

Reading/Writing Workshop: Our poem of the week will be a "Waddling Penguins." In phonics, the students will learn the blends: ch, sh, wh and ph. The students will use their informational writing from last week to design a "Time Magazine" about an American figure of their choice.

Math: We will work on money, learning about pennies, nickels and dimes. They will review counting by 5's and 10's. I will introduce time to the hour. An addition fluency test will be on Friday. Check your child's folder for which number group to study.

PBL: Driving question: How can we as first graders make an impact on the world today?

The students will design and write a "Time Magazine" based on an American figure we have studied. At the end of the week, they will begin to work on campaign posters for their job positions in our POL store.
