Pappy Reserve

Rare Pappy Van Winkle 12 Year Lot "B"—a collector's prize.

For the true bourbon connoisseur, few names command reverence like Pappy Van Winkle — and this Special Reserve 12 Years Old "Lot B" is one of the most coveted bottles in the world. This rare and highly acclaimed bourbon is a prize that serious collectors and enthusiasts eagerly pursue.

Aged for 12 years and crafted using the Van Winkle family's legendary wheated bourbon recipe, Lot "B" is celebrated for its exceptional smoothness, complexity, and balance. Expect rich notes of caramel and vanilla layered with oak, spice, and subtle dried fruit—finishing long, warm, and refined. It is a sipping bourbon meant to be savored slowly and shared only on the most special occasions.

Bottles of Pappy Van Winkle are notoriously difficult to obtain, often released in extremely limited quantities and disappearing from shelves almost instantly. Owning one is not just about taste—it's about prestige, craftsmanship, and heritage.

Whether you add this bottle to a distinguished collection or reserve it for a milestone celebration, this is an opportunity that rarely presents itself.

Raise your paddle high—this is bourbon royalty.
