

From Pastor David

When our daughter was just a week old, we took her to the doctor's office for a routine newborn screening. The 30-minute visit was filled with the kinds of standard tests that can't help but make a new parent anxious. The nurse diligently checked her weight, length, and head circumference before mercifully proclaiming our child to be 'normal.'

On the way home, I called my mother to let her know the good news. "Mom," I said, "according to the doctor, everything looks OK. In fact, Addy even passed her hearing test."

"That's great," my mother replied. "Of course, now you have to hope she will also pass her listening test."

I laughed. Although, if I'm honest with you, I don't know that I fully understood my mother's point at the time. I needed the last 11 years of parenting in order to fully appreciate just how much of a difference there is between hearing and listening.

After all:

- Hearing is passive, listening is active.
- Hearing seeks to respond, listening seeks to understand.
- Hearing is a physical act that engages the ears, listening is a spiritual act that engages the soul.

The great Hungarian Psychologist Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi once said, "It is not the hearing that improves life, but the listening." As people of faith, we are called not simply to be good hearers. We are called to be good listeners.

The Hayes Barton UMC Outreach Committee and Biblical Justice Action team (BJAT) is working hard to help our church become better listeners to the voices in our community. During this time, members of these two committees have hosted and continue to host several listening sessions to better understand where our church family currently sees God at work in and around the community of Hayes Barton. During these listening sessions, participants are asked to reflect on the question, "If you could change something about your local community, what would it be?"

Our trained facilitators believe this listening is a deeply spiritual practice that requires us to first understand the needs of our community, so that we can respond well to them. If you haven't been part of one of our listening sessions, we hope that you participate in one of the three upcoming opportunities:

- Wednesday, May 10 (10am),
- Monday, May 15 (7pm via Zoom), and
- Tuesday, May 16 (7pm).

It is my pleasure to report to you again on the financial condition of our church. And it is all good news!

THE CONTINUED GROWTH OF OUR CONGREGATION

One indication of the bright future of Hayes Barton is our continued growth. In March we received 34 adults into our congregation from the New Member Class. And the current New Member Class numbers 23 adults who will be joining us soon. We also recently confirmed 24 young Christians from our congregation.

Our Vacation Bible School enrollment this year is 197 - an increase of nearly 25% over last year's class. And, Amy Piland tells me that our Sunday attendance is almost all the way back to pre-Pandemic levels. Pastor David adds that when on-line attendance is included - we are ALREADY BACK! Friends, this is great news!! Hayes Barton is thriving!

THE 2023 CHURCH BUDGET

To support this growth, your Finance Committee has proposed and the Church Council has approved a balanced budget of $2,757,000. Thanks to the leadership of Mark Rostick and the Stewardship Committee - and your continued generosity - we had a very successful Stewardship campaign last fall. We received the same number of pledges as last year. But, the size of the average pledge increased by $350. The result was an increase of $158,000 in pledges over 2022. Pledges make up the bulk of our total estimated revenues. This year that total is $2.4 million. Some members choose not to pledge but still make meaningful contributions. We estimate this year that these contributions will yield $323,000. This estimate is based on an average of contributions over the past 5 years.

As with any organization, personnel is the largest area of expense for our church, a little over 60%. Our personnel budget increased this year by $51,000 over the 2022 budget. This increase was necessary to accommodate salary increases for pastors and staff. Medical insurance continues to increase. We have also experienced an increase in nursery care expenses. Finally, late last year, the Trustees approved the outsourcing of technology support for our pastors and staff. This move will increase efficiency for our staff and pastors and provides greater security for our data. Look for an article in the May Commissioner for more detail on our budget.

As I have mentioned before, Hayes Barton is blessed with substantial financial reserves. They total over $660,000. $350K of this total is earmarked for planned major capital expenses over the next several years as we replace aging components of our physical plant. The balance of $310K is designated as our Rainy Day Fund and reserved to cover any unanticipated expenses that may arise. It continues in place as an important bulwark against financial impacts we cannot predict.

FIRST QUARTER RESULTS

I will turn now to our financial results through March. With respect to pledges collected, we are ahead of budget - and $64,000 ahead of where we were at the same point last year. Non-pledged contributions are $40,000 ahead of where we were last year at this point. Overall revenues through the 1st quarter are nearly 10% ahead of where we projected to be at this point in the year. Finally, our expenses through the 1st quarter are in line with the budget.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO OUTREACH

Finally, I want to turn your attention to the impressive scale and scope of the Outreach undertaken by this congregation. This support includes:

- Local and International Outreach line items in our OPERATING budget, administered by our Outreach Committee, chaired by John Thomas.
- The Pastors' Discretionary Fund administered by our pastoral team to help members of the community in need.
- Mission support funding for:
 - Methodist Home for Children
 - Thanksgiving Food Fund
 - In As Much Fund
 - Scattered to Serve
 - Holiday Share
 - Wee Care
 - Growing in Love Fund
- Included in our total financial commitment to Outreach is 20% of the salary of our associate Pastor for Outreach, Matt Ashburn, who oversees our Outreach efforts - and a much smaller percentage of the salary of our Executive Director, Tim Price.

- Adult Sunday School Collections are dedicated to support our Outreach efforts.
- Last year there were enormously successful outreach fund-raising efforts by UMW with its Bazaar, the Seekers Chicken Dinner, the ACC Class and the UMM through its hamburger dinner for Wee Care.
- We are blessed to have 7 Endowments established by members of the congregation dedicated to missions, the earnings of which go directly to support Outreach. Among these are The Eury, Hines and Mann endowments and the Seekers Benevolent Fund.
- And finally, there are all of the food drives you support throughout the year. For example, the "Feed the Pack" drive going on now. My guess is that the amount of food collected throughout the year from these drives would measure in many hundreds of pounds.

The extraordinary generosity of this congregation last year yielded $370,000 in local and international outreach support.

THREE HUNDRED SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!

And mind you, this is exclusive of our Apportionment Payment of almost $240K to the Methodist Conference. Much of that total goes toward outreach within our state and around the world. But again, our congregation alone provided nearly $400K directly to outreach efforts last year! And most of that funding was to those in our community.

The lyrics of a favorite hymn sum up the Christian character of this generous congregation.

"We will work with each other; we work side by side ... and together we'll spread the news that God is in our land. And we'll guard human dignity and save human pride."

AND THEY'LL KNOW WE ARE CHRISTIANS BY OUR LOVE, BY OUR LOVE, YES THEY'LL KNOW WE ARE CHRISTIANS BY OUR LOVE."
