

From Pastor Laura

We become the God we worship.

I read this short sentence last night and can't stop thinking about it.

We become the God we worship.

If this is true, and the God I worship is angry, then I become angry.

If the God I worship is, in my mind, judgmental, then I become judgmental.

Conversely, of course, if the God I worship is merciful, perhaps I might become more merciful.

If the God I worship has a preference for the poor and struggling, then maybe I will learn a greater tenderness for the poor and struggling.

If the God I worship is slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, then I too, might become these things in the world.

We become the God we worship.

This is the reason we gather for worship every seven days - because we forget who God is throughout the week. We are fantastic at amnesia. We need to hear, and sing, and speak who

God is, over and over, until we start to look like a God-mirror.

We become the God we worship.

We are also myopic in our imagery for God. This is the reason we gather together to study scripture, read books, discuss topics related to our faith so that our picture of who God is can expand and challenge and console us.

If we become the God we worship, perhaps that's why Advent is my favorite season. This is the season in which we worship a God who is surprising: making his way to us in a womb, not a chariot. It's the season in which we worship a God who partners with a brave, young woman, not powerful government leaders. It's the season in which God shows up as a fragile, no-neck-muscles infant, not a warrior.

This Advent God expands and interrupts all of our images of who God should be, and invites us instead to learn again and anew who God actually is.

We become the God we worship.

Along with each of you, I look forward to worshipping this God and becoming more like this God this Advent season.

Peace of Christ,
Laura

On behalf of our clergy, staff, and the Stewardship Team, we thank those who have pledged their commitment for 2022 to Hayes Barton United Methodist Church! As shown by your pledge, you compassionately understand why “Giving by Faith” your first fruits is so important to the kingdom work here in our congregation, in our community, and around the world.

The church was once again bustling and it was wonderful to see so many people come out to support this annual event! In a year that has brought so much uncertainty, the outpouring of love and generosity from our community was truly humbling. ## Advent Book and Bible Studies

Advent Joint Sunday School

Our Pastors will lead us each Sunday morning during Advent and Epiphany for reflections on the season. We'll be using the book Advent in Plain Sight: A Devotion Through Ten Objects by Jill J. Duffield as our guide – reflecting on an object per week that connects us to the season. You may choose to read along or attend without reading. We will be using the same book as the basis for our Elementary SS during Advent as well. All are welcome! Some copies are available in our library and some are for sale ($14 each; contact Pastor Molly).

Waiting on the Word: A Poem a Day for Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany by Malcolm Guite*

Tuesdays beginning November 30, 12-1, online. Join Pastor Molly and Sean Timmons as our Zoom group discusses a wonderful alternative to a traditional Advent devotional. The Waiting on the Word anthology uses accessible, faith-based poems with short explanations and reflections for each day in the season. This is a perfect way to dip your toe into poetry – with just a couple of pages of reading per day! Please purchase the book on your own.

Women's Advent Gathering – Into the World*

Wednesdays beginning December 1, 9:30-10:30, in person. Join Pastor Laura and Pastor Molly as we gather in the Chapel for a time of worship and discussion during the Advent season. Saints Teresa of Avila, Catherine of Siena, Therese of Lisieux, and Hildegard of Bingen will be our guides as we discover the beauty and hope of the coming of Christ into the world. No reading required!

Our Church-Wide Advent Devotional for Advent 2021

is Advent in Plain Sight: A Devotion Through Ten Objects by Jill J. Duffield

Each day in the season from Advent to Epiphany has a brief (3-page) yet thoughtful devotion paired with a short scripture and reflection questions. We'll use this as our text for our Advent Joint Sunday School for adults and for our older Elementary students. Contact Pastor Molly for a reading schedule for the book that corresponds with this year's calendar. Please purchase the book on your own or several copies are available in our library and a limited number are for sale ($14 each; contact Pastor Molly).

Time Wisdom: The Time of Our Lives Retreat

Join us at January 14-16 as we gather at St. Francis Springs Prayer Center, just north of Greensboro, for a weekend away after the bustle of the holiday season! St. Francis Springs has deep ties to our HB community and our lay planning group has created a weekend with time for walking reading, conversation by the fireplace, worshipping, learning, and fellowship.

The theme for our retreat is "The Time of Our Lives." For many of us, time is the one thing we can't control. There isn't enough of it, or there's too much of it on our hands. Retreat with your brothers and sisters in Christ as we begin the new year exploring simple ways to bring Christ into our daily lives and consider a spiritual path to time in our lives.

We have limited accommodations for men, women, or couples. Depending on the number of people who attend, the cost will be between $100 & $150 for the weekend – including wonderful meals prepared by the staff at St. Francis Springs! Register now at hbumc.org/signups.
