

From Pastor David

The North Carolina Annual Conference is excited to welcome newly-elected Bishop Connie Mitchell Shelton as our new episcopal leader effective January 1st, 2023. Before being elected to the episcopacy, Bishop Shelton served as District Superintendent and Chief Mission Strategist for the East Jackson District in the Mississippi Annual Conference.

In addition to her years working in conference leadership, Bishop Shelton has also served in roles that include: director of Connectional Ministries and Communications, pastor of Galloway UMC in Jackson, Mississippi, and Field Education Director at Duke Divinity School. Prior to attending seminary, Bishop Shelton served for 7 years in broadcast ministry as the executive director of the United Methodist Hour broadcast, where she was the weekly preacher.

Bishop Shelton is a native of Picayune, Mississippi and a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi. She received her Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1997. Bishop Shelton replaces Bishop Leonard E. Fairley, who has led the NC Conference as an interim since September 2021.

Bishop Shelton is married to the Rev. Dr. Joey Shelton, Dean of the Chapel and Director of Church Relations at Millsaps College. They are the parents of two daughters, Bailey and Jessica.

A virtual worship service celebrating the assignment of Bishop will be held Sunday, Feb. 5, beginning at 5 pm. The service will be livestreamed at nccumc.org and on the North Carolina Conference app.

I hope that you will join with me in praying for Bishop Shelton as she transitions into this new role. We look forward to seeing all that God will accomplish through her steady leadership now and in the days to come.

Grace,
Pastor David

Special Called Charge Conference

There will be a Called Charge Conference on Tuesday, January 31, at 7pm in the Chapel. The sole purpose of the conference is to adjust the 2023 clergy compensation.

Habitat for Humanity Methodist Build and Race & Housing Dialogue

Hayes Barton UMC is partnering with several other Methodist churches in the area to build a house for a family originally from Morocco with two elementary age children. Learn more and sign up for one of two dates (Saturdays, Feb. 18 and Mar. 25) at hbumc.org/signups.

Members are also invited to be in dialogue about housing issues in our community as we work to build a home. On Thursday, February 2 from 7-8:30pm, Millbrook UMC, Amanah AMEZ, and Union Bethel AME are hosting a Race & Housing Dialogue at Millbrook UMC (1712 E. Millbrook Rd, Raleigh). We will watch Segregated By Design, a 17-minute documentary based on the book The Color of Law. This documentary examines the often-forgotten history of how our federal, state and local governments unconstitutionally segregated every metropolitan area in America through law and policy and the lasting impact it has today. We will watch the film together, and then break out in smaller groups to discuss. Then we will talk about how to advocate for changed policies, especially after the last election season. Please join us for this important conversation. We are intentionally inviting Black and white congregations to participate because our experience has been that this leads to the most compelling dialogue. We are asking everyone to register using the link:

Save the Date - UMW March Mission Study

Mark your calendars for the Jo Anna McMillan UMW March Mission Study on Monday, March 13, 2023 at 6 pm. Join the women of the church for dinner and discussion as the UMW embarks on a year-long, three-part program series focusing on personal growth that cultivates the mind, body, and spirit needed to serve our community.

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

Luke 10:27

Learn about this year's UMW grant recipients and spend time in fellowship with old and new friends. All women of the church are invited. You do not need to be in a circle or the UMW to attend. We hope to see you on March 13.

Hear from Ugandan
scholar Arthur Wasawa

rwhite@hbumc.org

Arthur Wasawa from Eastern Uganda is a 31-year-old student at NCSU and will be our speaker. He is a candidate for PhD in Agriculture Education. He was selected from 15 applicants for a graduate studies assistantship in the Agricultural and Human Science Department at NCSU. He is an interesting personality with a great story about education and agriculture in his native Uganda.
