

Hello all,

Great meeting planned!!!!!! Watch videos..... <https://togetherwomenrise.org/learn/featured-programs/> Also make note of book club relevant activity!!!

On July 6 @ 6 pm we will again meet at the Village Club House at Warden Pond. This will be a potluck and our grantee for July is Global Pearls, receiving over $30,000 over a 2 year period. video available @ Global Pearls, in collaboration with its partner, Rescue Women Cameroon (REWOCAM), is addressing the serious issue of gender-based violence, particularly child rape, in Kumba, Cameroon. I am trying to reach Susan, co-host from the Charlestown, TWR group, for Susan to present this grantee If I do not hear back from her, I will be the presenter.

Our sustained grantee is Collateral Repair Project, a featured grantee in 2015 and sustained from 2019-2021 receiving $75,000 over the 3 year period. Project Title is Resilience Beyond Displacement: Education and Empowerment for Refugee Women and Girls in Jordan Location: Amman, Jordan

Project Summary: CRP has expanded and grown steadily since its inception in 2006 in order to meet the needs of the ever-growing refugee population in Jordan. CRP's holistic support model focuses on positive growth and change, based on the understanding that refugees must first have their basic needs met in order to heal from trauma and build a better life.

It also happens that with Together Women Rise "Big Reads" in recognition of World Refugee Day, we will discuss the book "A Hope More Powerful Than the Sea" by Melissa Fleming then.....

- coming up this Monday, June 21 @ 8 pm. Our speaker, Tara Sutton, is a member of the Board for Collateral Repair Project & she will talk about her own experience in the Middle East and with refugees, why she got involved with Collateral Repair Project, what CRP is currently doing, and maybe some general thoughts on the world refugee crisis. The public is welcome to participate in these open zoom presentations. You must register

Again this will be a potluck, on July 6.....bringing your own plate, utensils and drink. We will have 1 volunteer serve the dish or offering you have brought. Menu suggestions are on our TWR web page.

Our monthly donations tallied up to June are $33, 078!!!!!!!!!!!! YIPPEE>>>>>>>>>> thank you all!

Thank you all for your support and being there.

Sincerely,Gail Burchard
