

2022 Multilingual Educator

Seeking
Fresh Ideas!

Multilingual Educator, CABE's annual magazine, provides readers with the latest research and information regarding quality practices and programs for English Learners, Dual Language Learners, multilingualism, multiliteracy, multiculturalism, educational equity, and social justice.

Submission Topics

Submissions must address a topic that relates to CABE's Vision and Mission, be of high interest, value, and current relevancy to the CABE Community, and may take the form of:

- ◆ Current research report
- ◆ Analysis of policy and legislation
- ◆ Personal narrative
- ◆ Poetry
- ◆ Artwork
- ◆ Description of successful programs
- ◆ Article on best practices, strategies, projects, and lessons for teachers
- ◆ Parent, student, educator, and/or community perspectives

Submission Review and Evaluation

The 2021 Multilingual Educator Review Committee will review and evaluate all submissions. Submissions will be accepted based on 1) compliance with submission requirements, 2) how well they meet the evaluation criteria, 3) space available in the publication, and 4) the number of submissions received on the same or similar topics.

Review and Evaluation Criteria

The Review Committee will evaluate each submission using the following rubric criteria:

The submission...

- is current and relevant to the CABE community.
- demonstrates creativity and engages the reader.
- focuses on English Learners, Dual Language Learners, multilingualism, multiliteracy, multiculturalism, educational equity, and/or social justice.
- addresses research and best practices, as relevant.
- has appropriate content and logical organization.
- exhibits a professional level of language, grammar, mechanics, and conventions.

Notification of Acceptance

Our goal is to notify all primary authors of the acceptance status of their submissions via email on or before October 15, 2021. Please wait until this date to send inquiries about acceptance.

Submission Requirements

All documents, graphics, photos and files must be submitted online according to requirements and upload instructions herein and as posted on the submission website:

- Submissions may not exceed 2,000 words in length
- If submission includes any references, footnotes, or other bibliographic information, combine these into one document to upload as a separate file.
- If submission includes graphic material, such as images, charts, and graphs, combine these into one document to upload as a separate file. Be sure to include identifying information or captions, along with any permissions or credits. Indicate in the article where each image should be inserted, if used. CABA reserves the right to select which, if any, graphic materials are included in the publication.
- Each submission must include a high-resolution photo/headshot of the author(s) with at least 300 ppi (pixels per inch). Screenshots from websites do NOT have acceptable resolution. Note: Photos taken up close with a phone camera are acceptable.
- Submissions in languages other than English are encouraged but must include the English translation. Please attach any language fonts needed for publication.
- The name of each uploaded file must begin with the primary author's last name.
- Only content received in this online application by the deadline will be included in the final publication.
- Be sure to include each co-author's name, degree, affiliation and photo. CABA reserves the right to select which photos are included in the publication.
