

Hello Neighbours!

A Community Conversation about
Cultural Diversity in Rural Alberta

Mon. Nov 18 | 7 pm

Viking Alliance Church

5115 48 Street

The Alberta Centre for Sustainable Rural Communities, in association with the Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life, invites you to a conversation on the topic of cultural diversity in rural Alberta. This is an opportunity to talk together about the realities of rural life and how to build bridges across our collective differences.

Light refreshments will be served.
This event is free to attend and open to the public.

For more info, contact Clark Banack, Senior Research Associate at the Alberta Centre for Sustainable Rural Communities at csbanack@ualberta.ca.
