

2 WEEKS WITH THE ARTS 2026

2 Weeks with the Arts is the Gadsden Arts Center & Museum's popular celebration of the art of creative living, and a vital fundraiser for Gadsden Arts programs in our community. Each year we feature accomplished creative professionals with a mix of free and ticketed events, including the Collect Select Exhibition & Sale, Afternoon with the Arts, and Evening with the Arts. All events take place in our historic Bell & Bates Building, and ticketed events are anticipated to sell out!

WEEK 1 • FREE EVENTS

January 20–24, 2026 • All Admission-Free!

The Collect Select Exhibition will be on view January 20–24, 10am–5pm, featuring collectible works by leading contemporary Florida artists.

On Saturday, January 24, enjoy the Collect Meet the Artists Reception from 5–7pm, with an exciting opportunity to meet and talk with exhibiting artists while enjoying catered hors d'oeuvres and refreshments.

WEEK 2 • SIGNATURE EVENTS

January 27–31, 2026 • Limited Availability!

- Afternoon with the Arts: John Grady Burns
Wednesday, January 28, 12–2:30pm
- Evening with the Arts: An Evening in Paris
Saturday, January 31, 6–9:30pm
- Collect Select Sale
Tuesday–Saturday, January 27–31

This week, enjoy the Collect Select Exhibition and buy great art in the Collect Select Sale. Also experience one of several exciting cultural events.

Afternoon with the Arts features a gourmet luncheon and presentation by renowned floral designer John Grady Burns titled Winter Decorating.

The week culminates with Evening with the Arts: An Evening in Paris, a dazzling evening of cocktails, dining, music, and art in the museum's beautiful Bell & Bates Building.

WHY SUPPORT GADSDEN ARTS?

A nationally accredited, leading regional art museum, Gadsden Arts brings discovery and joy to over 17,000 participants of all ages each year, and has a $1.5M economic impact in our community.

Community support makes everything we do possible. We offer art experiences for thousands of children, and introduce youth to careers in the arts. We bring discovery and purpose to retired adults, and are a trustworthy avenue for donors and businesses to invest in our community.
