Arthrex offers two 6-month international internships in Munich (Germany) starting in July 2026

Product Management – Spine

- Conduct market analyses to identify and monitor industry trends.
- Prepare competitive analyses to compare products with main competitors.
- Aid in planning, organizing, and coordinating marketing activities.
- Help determine production quantities and a rolling forecast.
- Assist in conducting medical and sales-related training on products and procedures for customers and employees (national and international).
- Collaborate in market launch and penetration efforts with marketing and sales to ensure maximum market segment penetration.
- Please notice: This is an in-office position located in Munich, Germany. It is not a remote position.

Marketing Communications

- Support the development and optimization of marketing dashboards and reports using Power BI.
- Improve the usability and design of existing analytics solutions.
- Expand and optimize internal documentation in Confluence.
- Conduct independent research on best practices and innovative approaches.
- Assist in gathering and structuring business requirements from stakeholders.
- Collaborate on data projects using tools such as Microsoft Fabric, JIRA, and Confluence.
- Please notice: This is an in-office position located in Munich, Germany. It is not a remote position.