

FAMED ORGANIST JAMES DAVID CHRISTIE TO PLAY AT BROWN MEMORIAL PARK AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Tiffany Series is thrilled to announce a recital by James David Christie, internationally acclaimed as one of the great organists of our time, on Sunday, May 7, 2017 at 3 p.m. at Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, 1320 Park Avenue (Bolton Hill), Baltimore. He will be playing the church's 1930 Skinner Organ, Opus 839, IV/45. A reception will follow.

Christie will play a colorful and varied program of primarily French works. Composers include J. Guy Ropartz, Henri Duparc, Albert and Jehan Alain, Jean Langlais and Charles Tournemire. Christie will also perform his own Élégie (in memoriam Jean Langlais).

Christie is Professor of Organ at the Oberlin College Conservatory, Distinguished Artist in Residence at the College of the Holy Cross, and College Organist at Wellesley College. He also serves as organist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, a position he has held since 1978. He has presented over 60 tours of Europe and has performed and recorded with major orchestras around the world.

Tickets are $20 (students $10), and are available at: www.browndowntown.org/current-season and at the door. Early ticket purchase recommended.

Parking at the Mt. Royal Elementary/Middle School lot (on the 100-block of Mosher St.) and shuttle service to the church will be available. For more information, please call 410-523-1542.

We hope you will join us for this exciting concert!
