

Opportunities to Act to End Violence in 2018

- Join a coalition from First & Franklin Presbyterian Church and Baltimoreans United in Leadership Development (BUILD) on Thursday, January 18 for a trip to Annapolis to meet with our state representatives. Each elected official will receive a purple ribbon for lives lost to violence in his or her district last year. There will be one or more buses leaving from First and Franklin Presbyterian Church at 210 W. Madison Street at 4pm. There is no cost for bus transportation but participants are requested to email information@firstfranklin.org to secure a bus seat. The buses will return to Baltimore late Thursday evening.
- Participate in the Peace and Healing Walk for Baltimore Ceasefire, Saturday, February 3 at 10am to 2pm at St. James' Episcopal Church-Lafayette Square, 1020 W Lafayette Ave., Baltimore, Maryland 21217.
- Attend 6 Week Lenten Book Study of The Cross and the Lynching Tree by James Cone. The series starts at 6pm on February 14th (Ash Wednesday) at Knox Presbyterian Church and include Bible study and a waffle meal. Be sure to pick up the handout with the dates, times and locations. All are welcome to join us, regardless of where you live or worship. For more information contact: Rev. Michael Moore, st.michaelinc1@verizon.net or go to: <https://www.knoxpcbaltimore.com/events>.
- Plan to attend a special Good Friday Service at 12noon on Friday, March 30, 2018. Be sure you signed in today so that we may send you information about the Good Friday Service.
- Start a conversation about what you and your congregation can do to organize together with others in the community. Not sure where to start, ask someone who is here with you today!
