

Townsquare's What You Need to Know Package

At Townsquare Media we are committed to serving the local business community and it is our job to keep the community informed during this challenging time. The residents of Monmouth-Ocean County need to know what's going on in the community more than ever these days. There are many local businesses in the Monmouth-Ocean County area that are open for business and need to remind the general public. Townsquare reaches over 186,000 people on air and nearly 16,000 people on line in these counties. In addition, we reach over 295,000 unique viewers on our websites and apps. Let us use our collective resources and remind everyone that your business is OPEN and ready to assist in any way possible. As a sponsor of Townsquare's What You Need to Know Package you receive the following:
