Urban Meets the Chocolate King

Thursday, September 26 at 6:00 pm at the Hershey History Center, 40 Northeast Drive, Hershey, PA 17033. Lancaster architect and author Gregory Scott, FAIA, presents a program on the untold story of Milton S. Hershey and his architect C. Emlen Urban. One built an empire with a kiss! The other designed his dream! Friends for Life. Two men from humble beginnings, both with academic struggles, both with ambition and dreams! The program is free and open to everyone. Registration is not required.

Bio

Gregg has done extensive research into the fascinating life of Lancaster architect C. Emlen Urban. He serves as a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and is co-founder and partner emeritus of RLPS Architects. Gregg contributes as architectural columnist and correspondent for LNP Media Group and NBC affiliate WGAL. He has received awards from the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County—most recently as the author of the award-winning “Urban Legend: The Life & Legacy of C. Emlen Urban”
