Hershey Symphony to Perform “Treasured and Timeless” at the Hershey Theatre in April

The Hershey Symphony Orchestra will present “Treasured and Timeless” at the Hershey Theatre on Friday, April 26, 2024, at 8:00 p.m. Maestro Greg Woodbridge will lead listeners on a tour of Eastern Europe by way of Enesco's Roumanian Rhapsody No. 1 and Prokofiev's Suite 2 from Romeo and Juliet. This performance will be the final major concert of the symphony's 55th season.

The Hershey Symphony Festival Strings, the symphony's youth orchestra, will perform in this performance. Under the direction of Andrew Kurtz, the youth orchestra is made up of middle school students from around the region who have been rehearsing together since last fall.

Later that weekend, the symphony will celebrate the conclusion of its 55th season with an Emerald Gala, to be held on Sunday, April 28, from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Hershey Country Club. Guests are invited to wear something green to the fundraiser to commemorate the symphony's “emerald” anniversary.

Hershey Symphony Celebrates Emerald Anniversary with Gala

The Hershey Symphony Orchestra invites the community to the Emerald Gala, a unique fundraising event at the Hershey Country Club, 1000 E. Derry Road, Hershey, on Sunday, April 28, 2024, from 4 to 7 p.m. The gala is a celebration of the symphony's 55th, or emerald, anniversary.

The event will feature a silent auction featuring unique local experiences, jewelry, wine baskets, and other must-have items. Heavy hors d'oeuvres, dessert, and a complimentary drink will also be served. A cash bar will also be available. Cocktail attire is suggested; guests are invited to wear something green to celebrate the symphony's emerald anniversary.

The live musical entertainment will feature various Hershey Symphony small ensembles, the Hershey Symphony Festival Strings Youth Orchestra, and a special musical surprise.

Tickets are $125 each and are available on the Hershey Symphony website, www.HersheySymphony.org. Businesses and individuals interested in sponsorship or donating items to the silent auction can also find that information on the site.
