FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Derry Church Welcomes the Knotwork Band

January 2025 — The Knotwork Band will perform Celtic folk music from Ireland, Scotland, England and Brittany when they take the stage at 4 pm Sunday, February 16 in the sanctuary at Derry Presbyterian Church, 248 East Derry Road, Hershey.

The concert is part of the church's 2024-25 Arts Alive cultural series. A free will offering will be received. Handicapped parking and an elevator are available.

Using a variety of instrumentation (silver flute, high and low whistles, wooden flute and piccolo, guitar, resophonic mandolin, hardanger mandolin, banjo mandolin, cittern, bodhráns, bones, and vocals), the Central Pennsylvania trio of Kevin Long, Tommy Kochel and Victoria Visceglia will play a wide spectrum of musical styles ranging from beautiful airs and waltzes to sprightly jigs and reels. The band's music has the strong influence of such modern groups as The House Band, Lúnasa, Old Blind Dogs, and Silly Wizard.

The Arts Alive season will continue at 4 pm on Sunday, April 6, with a concert by the Mennonite Children's Choir of Lancaster.

Derry Presbyterian Church is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA). Worship services are held on Sundays at 8:00 and 10:30 am and Tuesday evenings at 6 pm. For more information, call the church office at 717-533-9667 or visit derrypres.org.
