

Athletic Department News January 3, 2017

Wamogo's boys basketball team is off to a great start after their first four games. The Warriors now have 4 wins and 0 losses after a 63-46 win over O'Brien Tech in the championship game of the Wamogo Holiday Tournament on Friday, December 30!

Reid Turtoro was named to the tournament all-star team and scored 22 points to lead the Warriors who controlled both ends of the floor throughout the game. Tournament MVP Garrett Sattazahn and Ethan Collins each scored 12 points and Max Loomis had 11. Congratulations Warriors!

The Warriors continue their season this week with road games vs. Shepaug on Tuesday December 3 and Northwestern on Friday December 6.

