

BID!

BID!

Angels is excited to offer all school families and friends an opportunity to bid in on Angels Silent Auction items. Front row Christmas concert seating for 8! Or Have fun with 1 week of basketball camp with Coach Green! Auction items will be offered for silent auction bids prior to the Gala. The bidding will close on Monday, December 6th at 9am. No bids will be accepted or valid after the auction closes. This auction will not continue at the Gala. The highest bid for each auction item will be announced in TidBITS on Thursday, 12/9. All winners must pay for their items in the school office by cash or check the following week. Once the item is paid for, you can consider it yours to use or take the basket home. The bidding will be done through a sign up genius. Each item available for bidding will be on a separate bid sheet accessible from the below links. The starting bid is posted and all bids must increase by ten dollars or more to be valid. There will be a silent auction at the Gala which offers the opportunity to bid on many great baskets and fun surprises. The items you can bid on now will not be at the Gala. Be part of the fun and use the links below to start bidding. Join us in the FLC on February 12th, as we go back to the American Frontier with great food and dancing to a fabulous band. Seat Reservations will be available for purchase in December on the school website or by coming into the school office. Please contact ngallagher@sscsfl.org with any questions or for info regarding donations or sponsorships. All proceeds benefit SSCS Mustangs.

Hold on tight, because this rodeo is just getting started!
