CFUW Cambridge

14th Annual International Women's Day Breakfast 2026 #Give To Gain

Guest Speaker: Judy Major-Girardin

Topic: Connecting Art and the Environment

Judy is Professor Emerita from the School of the Arts at McMaster University where she taught for thirty-nine years. She lives in Cambridge and has served as Co-Chair of the Cambridge Sculpture Garden since 2005. Her studio work includes an integrated practise of painting, printmaking, drawing, artist books, and hanging fiber-based works that raise awareness for the preservation and celebration of wetland environments. Employing environmentally responsible studio practices is central to her work. Judy has exhibited in Canada, USA, and internationally and has attended artist residencies in British Columbia, Newfoundland, Quebec, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Alabama, Portugal, New Zealand, France and most recently in Bali. Judy received a BFA from the University of Windsor and an MFA from the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

This IWD event is our only fundraising initiative for our scholarship fund. We are hoping that you will continue to support our event in 2026.

Thank you for your past support of our International Women's Day events.

CFUW Cambridge continues to support and promote education for women with annual post-secondary scholarships to women in the Cambridge region.

Please take time to read about our scholarships under the scholarship tab, www.cfuwcambridge.wordpress.com. Charitable income tax receipts will be issued for the full amount of all donations. Your financial support will allow us to continue to assist local women with their University and College education.
