Noah Smith is a junior at the Oklahoma University pursuing degrees in Organ and Piano Performance, studying with Dr. Adam Pajan and Jeongwon Ham. He grew up in Russellville, Arkansas, where his musical family nurtured his interest in piano and church music from a young age. For the summer of 2022, Noah is appointed as the Organ Intern for All Saints' Episcopal Church in Kapa`a, Kauai. He is also appointed Organ Scholar at Saint John's Episcopal Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Mr. Smith is currently a technician at the Red River Pipe Organ Company and a staff accompanist for the OU School of Musical Theatre. He is a National Merit Scholar, the proud recipient of several music scholarships at OU, and was named OU's Outstanding Undergraduate Organ Student for the 2021–2022 academic year. In 2020, Noah was awarded prizes by the Little Rock Musical Coterie, the OKC Ladies Music Club, and the Hyechka Club of Tulsa, and won both the OU Young Artist Competition and the OU Rising Stars Competition in 2021. When he is not on the bench, he enjoys learning French and cooking.
