Remarks Welcome to the Landings at Avalon and this adorable towhouse style residence located just steps to fantastic dining and entertainment. The property features a first floor deck and private entrance. The first floor offers a large living area with recessed lighting and bamboo floors that continues to a beautiful kitchen. There is also a full size washer and dryer on this level. There is also a separate powder room which is great for when you are entertaining your guests. The second floor features a guest room with hardwood floors and an extra entrance to the main hallway bathroom. The spacious master bedroom also has hardwood flooring and a very attractive en-suite bathroom. There is also a fantastic deck off of this bedroom which will get great morning light to enjoy your morning cup of coffee from. This residence comes with an assigned off street parking space. Once you park your car, you can walk to everything Avalon has to offer. If you always imagined owning an affordable escape in Avalon, this could be your opportunity.
