One of the improvement opportunities for African Americans on the economic frontier is better utilization of basic tools in mainstream America. These tools include life insurance, long-term care planning, wills, trusts, & annuities. Pre-retirees can benefit from retirement planning & better understanding of survivor options. Savings for college funding should begin as early as possible. Business succession planning is important.

Special care and professional assistance should also be utilized when planning for children with special needs.

In addition to current living contributions, we should make bequests to our religious institutions, educational institutions, civil rights organizations, and/or charities.

A LETTER FROM OUR LEADER

For more than sixteen years, The International Fellowship of Faith Ministries (IFFM) has promoted preaching, teaching, and healing around the world. In 2008, we began IFFM as a global outreach of Faith Ministries Church. This network of pastors, ministers, missionaries, preachers, churches, denominations, Christian business leaders and more now has partners and chapters in more than forty nations worldwide.

Over the years, IFFM has sponsored and spearheaded conferences, workshops, Bible Schools, school supplies, relief for orphanages, health education, as well as, economic development projects such as a chicken farm in Nepal, a printing business in Nigeria, bringing electricity through solar panels to a village in Kenya and digging a well in Nigeria.

This year, Columbus, OH will again be the site of the Annual IFFM Convocation. For the first time since the pandemic, IFFM members and friends from around the world will gather again for the 16th Annual IFFM Convocation, July 26-30, 2023. This year's theme is: “More than Conquerors: Equippers, Builders, Transformers.”

Delegates are expected to attend either in person or virtually from Dominican Republic, Democratic Republic of Congo, France, Peru, Sierra Leone, Guinea, Ivory Coast, Angola, South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Liberia, across the USA and more.

In a global climate of conflict and division, IFFM is a shining example of people coming together to witness, worship and work to make the world a better place.

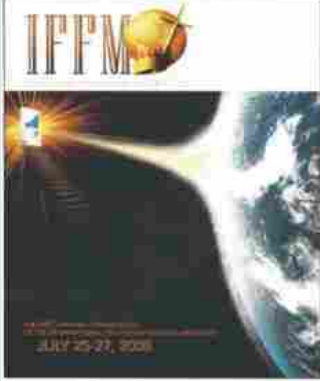

May God bless you, your family, and your ministry. Once again, welcome.

Yours in Christ,

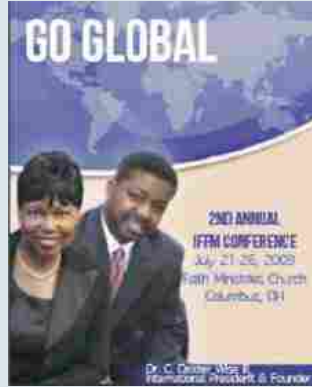

Dr. C. Dexter Wise III
International President and Founder

THEME:
You Must Be Born Again
(John 3:3)

The corona virus shut down millions of events in 2020, 2021 and 2022, but not the IFFM Convocation. Instead of postponing it, we adjusted it and transformed it. It went forth as an online Convocation which, in many ways, had a greater reach and impact than any of the Convocations which preceded it. This groundbreaking Convocation had participants from 9 nations, four continents and the Caribbean!

Dear Dr. Wise,

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your invaluable presence and unwavering support during the first Wise Bible College graduation ceremony. Your commitment to our students and dedication to the success of our institution were truly remarkable and deeply appreciated.

As the Provost of The Wise Bible College, I have had the privilege of witnessing the growth and development of our students throughout their educational journey. The graduation ceremony was a pivotal moment in their lives, and your presence added a sense of honor and significance to the occasion. Your inspiring words during the commencement speech resonated strongly with our graduates, faculty, and staff, encouraging them to pursue their dreams and continue their pursuit of knowledge.

Moreover, your instrumental role in establishing Wise Bible College and leading it to its first graduation ceremony has been nothing short of exceptional. Your vision and tireless efforts in creating an institution that nourishes both faith and academic excellence are commendable. The foundation you have laid will continue to shape the lives of many aspiring theologians and ministry leaders for generations to come.

I would also like to acknowledge your invaluable support during the planning and execution of the graduation ceremony. Your guidance, counsel, and active involvement ensured that the event ran seamlessly, leaving a lasting impact on everyone present. Your commitment to excellence permeated every aspect of the ceremony and contributed to its resounding success.

Your leadership and unwavering support have not only transformed our institution but also the lives of those who have had the privilege of being part of this journey. We are truly blessed to have you as our leader.

I look forward to continuing our shared mission of molding the minds and hearts of future Christian leaders. Your visionary leadership and dedication will undoubtedly propel Wise Bible College to greater heights.
