

At-Risk Youth and Character Education

Avoca, IA
July 24-25, 2017
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Des Moines, IA
July 27-28, 2017
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $100
A $230 value; discount provided by The Ray Center.

An upbeat and fun-filled interactive character education workshop for individuals and programs working with at-risk youth (ages 10-18+)!

- Experience and learn first-hand about research-based strategies, ideas and approaches that can enhance a program's current curriculum or approach to working with at-risk youth.
- Individuals and agencies searching for new and different ways can use the strategies and approaches as a foundation for character education.
- The strategies, ideas and approaches can enhance a program's current curriculum or approach to ethical decision-making and character education.
- All approaches and strategies utilize the nation's leading methodologies and pedagogies and CHARACTER COUNTS! 5.0 to teach and facilitate character education and ethical decision making for at-risk (at-hope) youth.
- Individuals and programs attending do not have to be using CHARACTER COUNTS! to benefit from this workshop.

Some of the distinctive topics covered are:

- Ethical decision-making
- Emotion Control
- Drug & Alcohol intervention
- Facilitation
- Experiential Learning and "The Teachable Moment"
- Coaching and Mentoring

Credit

One hour of Drake University EDMA credit or one hour of license renewal credit is available; cost of credit is additional to seminar cost.

Learn more and register at www.drake.edu/raycenter

The Robert D. and Billie Ray Center 2507 University Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50311-4505
515-271-1910 www.drake.edu/raycenter

In partnership with

CHARACTER COUNTS!