

City of Philadelphia
Mayor's Office on People with Disabilities

If you are in need of food delivery due to the coronavirus illness and are quarantined, a disabled person who cannot get out of the house, or you're a senior who can't go to any of the locations posted on the phila.gov website to pick up nutritious food. If you need food delivered to your homes please email me your name, phone number, address, and zip code at Claudia.Tasco@phila.gov or call and leave your information at 215-686-2798, the voicemail is being checked every day for calls. I will return your call and let you know when someone will be able to assist you.

Claudia Tasco

Constituent Service Coordinator

The Mayor's Office on People with Disabilities

215-686-2798