Image Submissions

1. All images must be uploaded via the Painting Submission Form by the submission deadline.
 - No emailed images will be accepted.
 - Ask for help! Contact Colleen.
2. Jurors should see the best match of the work that will be presented for exhibit.
 - Submit image(s) that represent the work that will show when displayed at auction.
 - Tips: Crop out mat, frame, or other extraneous background. Capture photograph(s) with good, even lighting, eliminating cast shadows. Ensure image is not skewed. Take photo with the camera face parallel with the painting surface.
 - Any digital photo manipulation detected during jurying will exclude the entry.
 - Recommend uploading images less than 5M in overall size.
 - Ensure camera's date and time settings are accurate.
3. Participating artists are asked to capture image(s) of artworks prior to packaging or framing.
4. Entering artists grant permission of use of images for promotional purposes.

Event Sales

1. Auction Sales

Minimum Bid* - Artists must assign a minimum bid for all competition entries. Minimum bids must be:

 - $100 or more for a framed entry in the Watercolor Competition. Artists submit the minimum bid price, along with other entry details, during image submission entry.
 - $50 or more for a matted entry. Artists submit the minimum bid price, along with other entry details, during painting entry drop-off. Matted entries are due by 5pm on September 17th.

To determine an artwork's minimum bid price, artists should calculate the costs for creating the artwork (including framing costs), the 40% event commission, and the desired minimum profit for each art piece submitted. For example; on a $100 sale, the artist will receive $60 after the 40% event commission is assessed.*

"Buy Now" Pricing – Artists may assign a "Buy Now" price. Buy Now prices are not required.

 - A prospective buyer at auction may opt for a "Buy Now" price to avoid being out-bid by another buyer.
 - Artists who want to encourage competitive bidding during the auction sales event should not assign a "Buy Now" price.
2. Participating artists agree that all event entries are subject to the 40% sales commission for sales occurring before, during, and 90 days after the event. Artists agree that "side deals" offered before, during, or after the event are prohibited.
4. Artists can expect to receive payment for all auction sales, less commission, within 30 days of the event closing.
5. Artists are responsible for retrieving all unsold entries at the conclusion of the reception and auction event, September 18. If not attending reception, participating artists must arrange for pick-up.

Compliance (the “Sticky Icky Stuff”)

Registering artists are competing for limited exhibit space. In other words, selected artists are “taking up seats” that are prized and valued by all competing artists. It is therefore incumbent upon all entering artists to agree to the entry obligations of the competition. Artists agree to the following penalties for non-compliance of any of the terms for entry, as specified in this prospectus:

1. A two-year prohibition from entering future Watercolor Carson City competitions.
2. A $40 fee will be assessed for each selected painting not presented for the auction sales event or presented with inadequate framing.
